

Idaho Economic Advisory Council

The Idaho Economic Advisory Council is appointed by the governor and advises the department in the preparation and execution of the economic and community development plans, projects and programs as outlined in Section 67-4703, Idaho Code. The council consists of seven people who serve for three-year terms, with two members' terms expiring each year. One person is appointed to represent each of the six planning regions of the state and one person serves in a statewide capacity. Idaho Code requires membership to be divided between political parties.

The Idaho Economic Advisory Council meets quarterly. Each member is compensated for travel expenses and per diem.
